

REANZ NEWSLETTER

MARCH 2015

www.reanz.org

FIORDLAND CONFERENCE

Connecting Children to the Atelier of Nature
Tuhono ana tamariki ki te taiuo

In an 'atelier of nature' it is possible to see 'dancing waters', 'grass in conversation with the wind', the 'community of rocks' and 'the whispering of leaves'.

Join us for this unique opportunity to interact in the 'atelier of nature' with Elena Giacopini (Pedagogista) and Loretta Bertani (Atelierista) from Reggio Emilia, Italy.

9th—12th April 2015

Click here for more information and to register

REGIONAL EVENTS

Northland:

Ngā Tapuwae (Footprints)

The Pedagogy of Reggio Emilia Through a Māori Lens

by Brenda Soutar and
Te Hemara Rauhihi

Saturday 28th March 2015

Click here to register

TWILIGHT CENTRE VISITS

Thursday 19th March 2015

Cost: $35

Registrations closing soon!

Click here to register

MELBOURNE STUDY TOUR

11th—17th October 2015

Lorraine Manuela and Brenda Soutar are leading this tour and you will have the pleasure of visiting centres as well as enjoying a seminar by Chris Celada and Margo Hobba.

Click here for more information and to register

STORIES FROM REGGIO

Whaowhia te kete matauranga

'Fill the Basket of Knowledge'

By Elena Giacopini

This event will appeal to educators who are keen to learn more about the educational project from Reggio Emilia. Elena Giacopini, a world renowned speaker from Reggio Emilia, will engage participants with research projects, share memories of these projects and how they reflect a pedagogy of listening.

Date: Tuesday 7th April 2015

Venue: Junior School Hall Diocesan School for Girls

Time: 6.00pm—9.00pm

Cost: $85 (includes early supper)

Click here for more information and to register

WINTER CONVERSATION SERIES...

REANZ invites you to join Diti Hill and Chris Bayes to explore ideas around the guiding principles of the pedagogy of Reggio Emilia. The third evening will build on the first two evenings, with a focus on specific project work and the process behind the 'progettazione' or project.

Dates: 5th May, 9th June and 21st July from 7pm-9pm

Venue: Kohia Education Centre, The University of Auckland, 78 Epsom Avenue, Auckland

Cost: $85 per person for 3 evenings

Click here for more information and to register