

What was it like from the perspective of a group of tamariki living through the Coronavirus global pandemic?

Join us as we delve deeper into the experiences of a teaching team and community, as told in their beautifully published book.

Laura Magnavacchi and Prue Crarer will guide us through this inspirational story, expanding on the project and the mana tangata (contribution) of all.

Saturday the 23rd of March, 2024

9:30 - 12pm

Peacocks Stonefields

31 Puchas Hill Dr, Stonefields, Auckland.

Registration: Option 1: $55

Option 2: $75 including your copy of the book on the day.

Due to space, numbers will be limited to 40.

There are extra copies available for purchase.

Following the presentation, you will have the opportunity to view the centre, seeing their environment and recent projects.

To participate please either scan the QR code or click here.

REANZ is committed to providing relevant and informative professional learning to teachers who are inspired by the pedagogy of Reggio Emilia

